

Bring ScreamFree™ to Your Church

Start with our Sunday Morning Outreach Event – What it means to be an Adult

Growing up is hard to do especially for grown-ups! This entertaining and insightful talk is perfect as a guest sermon for your congregation, as an outreach event, or for parenting and family groups. Listeners will enjoy the challenge to examine both their reactions and their overreactions. The ScreamFree Living concepts help people laugh at themselves while learning how to apply Christlike principles to create calm in the world around them. Each family attending this event will receive a free copy of the award-winning, bestselling book, ScreamFree Parenting.

“The program material is revolutionary and the delivery is unsurpassed. ScreamFree Living changes lives. As a Senior Minister, if I could urge you to consider one program to take on this year, this would be it. The rewards for you and your church will be immediate and measurable.”

Don McLaughlin, Senior Minister, North Atlanta Church of Christ

PARENTING

Raising Your Kids by Keeping Your Cool

This breakthrough parenting seminar has already inspired parents in churches all across the country to create revolutionary changes in their homes. Rather than the typical child-focused and technique-based approaches to parenting, the ScreamFree way equips parents to operate from their highest principles while quieting their deepest fears. This half-day seminar can also be delivered in a 1-hour introductory format suitable for larger audiences, parenting groups, or a special outreach event.

Follow the Seminar with our Small Group Study

Launch new Small Groups in your church with the ScreamFree Parenting Curriculum. This comprehensive 12-week series takes a closer look at each of the principles addressed in the book. This journey can be life-changing for participants as they integrate these principles into their everyday lives with the support and accountability found in a small group environment. Ask about our special facilitator training session.

MARRIAGE

Calming Down, Growing Up, and Getting Closer

A 3-hour interactive, challenging and enlightening seminar! Combining proven principles with the foremost clinical research on relationships, ScreamFree Marriage encourages self-respect and personal responsibility. Couples learn to embrace their differences and celebrate personal growth causing the intimacy that they crave to emerge in their lives.

LEADERSHIP

Becoming a Calming Authority

In this 90-minute engaging and entertaining presentation, Hal Runkel shows how leaders can effect powerful and substantial change simply by managing themselves. By developing a profound understanding of how relationship systems really work, ScreamFree Leadership enables each individual to take hold of his/her own emotional reactivity and truly become the calming authority every organization needs.

FAMILY WEEKEND PACKAGES

Imagine a ScreamFree Weekend in the lives of your members! This weekend event touches each relationship in the family. Select any combination of the talks above or plan a package that is customized for your group. Call today to schedule one of these revolutionary, relationship-building weekends.

“Hal’s message is refreshingly different from all those who tell us we need to just ‘communicate better’ or give more ‘quality time.’ Finally, here is an approach which encourages the growth of each member of the family!”

Meg Jackson Clark, Associate Pastor, Newnan Presbyterian Church
